Nancy Sexton is celebrating 40 years with O'Neal Library!

Nancy Sexton is celebrating 40 years with O'Neal Library! She has dedicated her life to serving our community through the O'Neal Library. Her hard work, dedication, and passion for reading and education have made a significant impact on countless lives over four decades. We are honored to have her as part of our library family.

Sixty years ago, Nancy began her journey at the O'Neal Library. She started as a simple volunteer, helping to organize books and assist patrons. Over time, she worked her way up the ranks, eventually becoming the Librarian. Her commitment to the library and its mission has remained unwavering throughout her career. She has been instrumental in the development of the library's collection, the implementation of new technologies, and the promotion of literacy and education in our community.

Nancy's work has not gone unnoticed. She has received numerous awards and recognition for her outstanding contributions to the library and the community. Her impact extends beyond the walls of the library, inspiring others to pursue a career in library science and dedicated service to their communities.

Nancy's retirement marks the end of a remarkable era. She will be greatly missed, but we are grateful for the legacy she has left behind. Her knowledge, expertise, and passion for reading will continue to inspire us all. We wish her many happy and fulfilling years ahead.

On behalf of the O'Neal Library and the entire community, we would like to extend a special thank you to Nancy for her years of service. Her dedication and hard work have made a lasting impact on our library and the community it serves. We look forward to continuing to serve our community for many more years to come.

We invite you to join us in honoring Nancy's 40 years of service at the O'Neal Library. Please join us for a special ceremony to celebrate her achievement. Your presence will be greatly appreciated. We hope to see you there!

Thank you again to Nancy for everything she has done for the O'Neal Library and our community. We are truly grateful for your service and dedication.

Congratulations Nancy!

Staff in the Spotlight

Once again, O'Neal Librarians shine brightly in the national arena. Children's Department Head, Gloria Repolesk, has been appointed as the chair of the Children's Literature Lecture Award Committee. This year, O'Neal Library will have three members of its staff serving on national committees.

CREATIVITY CONTEST

Painting, poetry, songs, music, short films, stories, cross-stitch—we accept all forms of art and creativity in our Summer Creativity Contest! If you can conceive it and execute it, then we want to see it.

Email your art/project to teens@onealllibrary.org before 11:59pm on Monday, June 28th to participate in the contest. Your work will be featured anonymously in an online gallery on July 1-July 21 where people can submit votes on which artwork/project they like the most.

Sue DeBrecht Education Fund

Former Library Director, Susan J. DeBrecht (Sue), advocated for staff development and continuing education for 32 years at the O'Neal Library. It is the desire of the Mountain Brook Library Foundation to express their appreciation to Sue and recognize her outstanding and unparalleled leadership to the Library by establishing the Susan J. DeBrecht Education Fund to give tuition assistance to Library employees pursuing a master's degree in the library field. To make donations to this fund in honor of Sue, please click on the donate button below and direct your donation to the Sue DeBrecht Education Fund.

For Information about donations, please contact Pamela Rosser at

How does the Mountain Brook Library Foundation support O'Neal Library?

The Mountain Brook Library Foundation has partnered with O'Neal Library to provide world class services to the Mountain Brook community since its inception in 1993. Assisting with funding for special programs and projects such as author events, digital collections, and state of the art technology, the Foundation is vital to the Library's mission to provide quality library and informational services for all the people of our community. Thanks to the gifts from generous donors, the Mountain Brook Library Foundation will continue to invest in life-long learning resources for the current and next generation of Mountain Brook residents.
